Manny and Claire Sylvia

Claire was born in Providence RI. Manny was born in New Bedford MA. Manny went to Dartmouth schools and later graduated from high school in New York. He became an accountant for the town of Wareham. Claire worked for the school lunch program. They got married December 31, 1945. They have been married 64 years and have lived in the same house for 63 years. They have five children. Later in life Claire broke her hip and went for rehab. They came here hoping that things will work out for the best.

Geraldine Costa was born June 8th in Taunton MA. Her maiden name was Santos. She went to high school in Fall River MA. She worked at the AJ Wright Co. and she was a CNA for many years. She married John Costa and has two sons. One is a police officer in Fall River. The other son is in California. They looked around at places. They came here and liked it very much, so she is here to stay.

Colleen Gonsalves was born in New Bedford MA. She went to the Roosevelt School. She worked for 37 years as a stitcher. She got married and had two girls and one son. One daughter passed away from cancer. Her son is a business man. She has two granddaughters and one grandson who are lawyers. She loves to read. She has a close family. They brought her to see the Cedars and she likes it here.

Rose Mello was born in New Bedford MA. She attended a school for her eyes. She married John Mello and had two boys. They both passed away. She adopted a boy and he passed away at age 50. She worked at Linboon Laundry for 20 years or more as a presser. Her husband worked for the gas company. He left that job and opened a gas station. She lived at Riverview Apartments then moved to Harborview Apartments for 38 years. She uses talking books. She has a niece Pricilla who is her caretaker. She went to Brandon Woods for a short time. She came here and likes it very much.

Rebecca Golenski was born in New Bedford MA. She went to Dartmouth High School. After school she worked in a bank. Later she went into an auto salvage business. She got married and has two daughters. She also has six grandchildren. She loves to crochet. She spent some time in a Mashpee rehab center. This year is her 50th anniversary from Dartmouth High School. She hopes to be there. She already knew about the Cedars and decided to come here to stay. She fits right in and she loves to help people.

Joao Carreiro was born in Mia, Portugal. He worked in a factory for 20 years. He married Albertino at the age of 28. They lived in New Bedford MA. They had three boys and one girl. Later he worked for a beer factory. Later on in life he lived in Brandon Woods. His son brought him here and he likes it very much.
